

Aid application for registration fees to GERMN2022

Members of the GERMN submitting a presentation (oral, flash or poster) at the Congress and applying for an aid must complete and upload this financial aid application signed by the applicant and with the approval of the scientific supervisor. The recipients of this aid will have access to free registration fees.

Applications will be evaluated by the organizing committee. Decisions shall be communicated to the beneficiaries by e-mail. Proposals will be prioritized based on their ability to promote the dissemination of NMR spectroscopy. Actions with less possibility of obtaining founding from other sources will be favored.
